

Karate Resume of Liangliang (Leo) Xu

“Keep your head low, eyes high, mouth shut; base yourself on filial piety and benefit others.”

—Masutatsu Oyama, Founder of Kyokushin Karate.

My two karate teachers in 2002 (left: Sensei Mearu, who first brought karate to China in the 1980s; right: Sensei Takabachi, who was then the Chief of Kyokushinkaikan China Branch)

Master Azuma and poor me in Tsinghua University

2000.10-2004.6 College Karate Club

World Karate Organization Kenshikai

- 2001 • Elected as club president and manager;
 - 3rd Prizes China Kenshikai Tournament;
- 2002 • College Excellent Club Manager (with club membership over 50);
 - 3rd Prizes Shanghai Quanlihui Tournament;
 - 2002 Shanghai International Karate Tournament (non-difference), as youngest, lightest, and only non-black belt participant;
 - Granted black belt 1st Dan granted by World Karate Organization Kenshikai.

- 2004 • Organized 3international karate exchanges at Peking University and Tsinghua University, and Shanghai University of Engineering Science, instructed by Japanese Kudo Master Azuma;
- 2005 • Helped launching the China Shanghai Branch of NGO Shinkyokushinkai with Brach Chief Sensei Okumura
- 2006- • Part-time Karate coach and referee
- 2008- • Organizing and sponsoring summer camp karate trainings for orphans for six consecutive years, partnered with Chi Heng Foundation

Black Belt 1st Dan Certificate

