What are the unusual origins of the APA International Division 52 in 1997? In this 70-minute webinar, two co-founders and past-Presidents offer an illustrated review of Division 52—its pre-history, origins, and early development, followed by open discussion with participants.

Professors Denmark and Takooshian are co-founders and past-Presidents of APA Division 52.

Dr. Florence Denmark has contributed to psychology in several ways, specifically in the field of psychology of women and human rights, both nationally and internationally.

Dr. Harold Takooshian is a professor, author, consultant, and co-founder of the International Psychology book series with the Psychology Coalition at the United Nations.
