

MOOC TEACHING APPRENTICESHIP APPLICATION FORM

Please use this form to apply for a massive open online course ("MOOC") Teaching Apprenticeship. As with a regular Social Psychology TAship, this position counts as a one-credit graded psychology class, but the work can be done remotely from any location with high-speed Internet service. Some TA duties for the MOOC include monitoring the online discussion forums, helping answer student questions, supervising Community Mentors (students who have completed the MOOC and are volunteering to help other students), developing course resources, and otherwise making sure the MOOC operates smoothly. The hours are flexible and will include at least some amount of work across weekends and university breaks.

If you received a good grade in Social Psychology and are interested in serving as a MOOC TA, please complete this form and email it to Professor Plous along with your Academic History and résumé, using the email subject "Application for MOOC TAship." He will then set up Zoom calls with finalists for the position and let all applicants know as soon as all openings are filled.
